Forest Schools & Bush Craft for KS2 and KS3

The aim of the Forest School and Bush Craft is to build confidence, observation, understanding of oneself and others and to develop Teamwork. The day is also designed to be fun.

It can be a taster day for more regular sessions.

Whether it is a Forest School or a Bush Craft day, all sessions, start with basic bush craft skills. You then select modules on behalf of your students or allow the students to select, on the day, what collectively they want to do.

Please select which age group

Forest School (KS2)

BushCraft (KS3)

Choices of the 2 additional Modules:

Archery,

Laser Tag,

Raft building,

or allow the group to chose on the day

Kayaking,

Woodland Challenge,

Wall Climbing

Please bring a packed Lunch

Dress Code: Please remember that almost all the day is outside so everyone should come suitably dressed in scruffy clothes and wearing shoes or boots that stay securely on the foot, ie wellies or trainer and don't mind getting dirty. It is essential that a spare set of clothes is brought as well as a spare pair of shoes. Don't forget Sun Hats and sun protection for sunny days.
